

At Gulley Greenhouse, co-workers enjoy the freedom of an open environment. We have been in business for over 30 years. Many of our current employees have worked here from 5 to 15 years, which proves the great employment opportunity and work ethic which our company has to offer.

In order to maintain this positive work environment, we have high expectations for the people that work with us. We expect our employees to empower themselves to get their job done with little or no supervision. We ask that all Gulley Greenhouse employees work hard and be conscientious. Below are some of our expectations as an employer and some of the benefits which we can offer you;

What do we look for in a job candidate?
